April ASTD Nebraska Newsletter

Hello [firstname],

There's still time! Don't forget to register for the May ASTD Regional Event, "Human Performance Improvement: Doing More With Less." Registration fees go up after April 15, so take advantage of the savings and register you and your co-workers today. This event provides you a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to hear seven very knowledgeable, inspirational, and motivational speakers in one day, at one venue. You will also have the opportunity to visit various vendors and network with other business professionals.

Hope to see you there!

Christine Orsborn
Director of Communications

This is a "Save the Date" graphic for the ASTD-Lincoln & ASTD Nebraska Regional Event. It features the ASTD logo on the left and right, a globe in the background, and the event date "May 18, 2011". The speakers listed are Andrea Nierenberg (The OZ Principle), Ralph Kilmann (Eagles Flight), Jack Zenger, and Jim Smith. It also mentions Bellevue University and Human Capital Lab. A note states: "Members of ANY ASTD Chapter get the Member Rate!". The website "www.astdregionalevent.com" is listed at the bottom.

Think Differently for Better Outcomes

Author: Erick Dragsten

Release Date: Friday, Mar 25 2011 1:00 PM

Time to complete that monthly report you hate? Got a week left before your big project is due, and you're dreading it? Have a meeting with a colleague you can't stand? If so, you may want to try the following: Think and behave in a manner opposite of how you feel. Instead of focusing on all the reasons why you dread the report, project, or upcoming meeting, force yourself to think about something positive. This might be the relief you will experience when the event is over,...
