

VP Programming

Jill Banaszak
Mutual of Omaha
Email Jill

General Responsibilities:

Provide leadership to the Director of Programming and Director of Special Events. Oversee the planning, management and evaluation of professional development opportunities provided for membership and guests, including monthly programming, special events, Special Interest Groups (SIGs), and conferences.

Promote recognition of and respect for the chapter and its membership within the Omaha and Nebraska business communities.

Bio: Jill Banaszak is a Training Specialist in the Individual Policy Services area at Mutual of Omaha since 2009. Previous to that position, Jill worked as a trainer in the healthcare field for three years. Her training focus is on new hires and process documentation, although she is hopeful to begin providing e-learning through Captivate to her customers in the near future! She is pursuing her CPLP certification and plans to take the test in the fall. As Vice President of Programming, Jill is very excited to be a part of the great selection of speakers and workshops that will be offered this year.